ANDREW J. PECK, United States Magistrate Judge:

To the Honorable P. Kevin Castel, United States District Judge:

This case should be transferred to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York ("EDNY").

The pro se complaint asserts a Title VII claim. (Dkt. No. 2: Compl.) The complaint also discloses that plaintiff lives in Queens and worked for defendant Jofaz Transportation in Brooklyn. (Compl. ¶ I(A)-(C).) Both Queens and Brooklyn are in the EDNY. There are no allegations in the complaint of any unlawful employment practices occurring in this District.

In response to this Court's September 12, 2011 Order (Dkt. No. 9) directing plaintiff to show cause why the case should not be transferred to the EDNY, plaintiff states that: "After two years I am not satisfied with the proceed of them and they gave me the right change to elect one of four federal districts." (Garzon 9/19/11 Letter to the Court.) Any dissatisfaction over the past two years must refer to the EEOC or the State Division of Human Rights, not the EDNY court.

Moreover, the EEOC form that Garzon attached specifically stated that: "The appropriate court is the district court which covers either the county where the respondent is located or the county where the alleged act of discrimination occurred." As noted, in this case that is in the EDNY. (Because it is a generic form, it lists all four of the federal district courts in New York State, which is probably what confused plaintiff Garzon.)

Accordingly, the case should be transferred to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.
